FRIDAY, MAY 31. 1736.

N^o. 281.

To the DAILY GAZETTEER.

S I R,

ESTERDAY Will. Whistle my Landrefs's Husband, and Speaker of the Craftsman's Parliament, called at my Chambers. Well, said I, here's a Dram of right Holland for you. — Ah! Master, replied he, there will be no such thing as getting a Dram in a little while, except at such Gentlemen's Chambers as your's. What's the Parliament prorogued? Yes, Master, and I am very glad of it; for the House was in such a Fermentation upon * your printing their Votes, that I thought I should have been thrown out of the Window; but — (having drank another Dram) — if I cannot have the Privilege of bringing my Master the Votes, who will may be their Speaker for me. — And, Sir, may it please you, here are some more of them.

I am, S I R,

Your humble Servant,

WM. PRYNN.

More Votes of the Craftsman's Parliament.

Martis, 18 Die Maii, 1736.

A Petition of Mother Gin was presented to the House, and read, setting forth, That the Petitioner, through the Encouragement of the Members of this House, hath greatly extended her Still-house, and enlarged her Traffick, for the more convenient Management whereof she hath been at a considerable Expence in the Erection of Backs, Worms, and other Implements; and acquainting the House, that an Indictment hath been preferred against her upon an old Statute, made ever since King James the First's Time, whereby it is made Felony to deal with evil and wicked Spirits; and expressing her Apprehensions, lest her noble Restorative, which hath occasioned so many Debates in this Honourable House, should be set at nought: And therefore humbly praying the House to take her Concern into their Consideration, and that Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to repeal the said Statute, or otherwise to enable the Petitioner to continue the Exercise of her lawful Function, in such Manner as to the House shall seem meet.

ORDERED, That the said Petition be referred to the Consideration of a Committee of the whole House.

William Grumble, Esq; reported from the Committee of Dreams and Visions, That the three chief Catholick Powers of Europe were going to unite, and make a religious War upon the Protestants; and that the Dutch were resolved to turn Papists, and King Stanislaus was upon his March from Poland, with an hundred thousand Men, to invade Great Britain.

ORDERED, That it be referred to the Care of the Lord Catiline and William Grumble, Esq; to write a large Twelve-penny Pamphlet concerning the said Dream.

A Petition of Guy Fawkes, and Rawillac Fog, Esqrs. Guardians and Committees of the Person, Fortunes, and Estate of Caleb D'Anvers, Esq; a Lunatick, was presented to the House, and read, setting forth, That upon the Marriage of the said Caleb D'Anvers with Mother Gin, by Indentures tripartite, bearing Date the 10th Day of June, in the Year of our Lord 1726, and made, or meant, mentioned, or intended to be made between the said Caleb D'Anvers, Esq; of the first Part, Mother Gin of the second Part, and your Petitioners of the third Part, it was (inter al) covenanted, concluded, and agreed by and between the Parties to the said Indenture, tripartite, that the Sum of Forty Pounds should be paid yearly and every Year, out of the Profits of the Craftsman, into the Hands of the Petitioners, for the sole and separate Use of Mother Gin, as by the said Indenture tripartite, Relation being thereunto had, the same doth, and may more fully and at large appear; and informing the House, that the Profits accruing from the said Paper, which is so much and so justly admired by the Members of this House, are greatly abated; and that Mother Gin is in a Capacity of getting a Livelihood by her separate Vocation: And therefore praying that Leave may be given for the bringing in a Bill to enable the Petitioners to apply the said Forty Pounds a Year, towards the Maintenance of the said Lunatick, who must otherwise become chargeable to the Parish.

ORDERED, That the said Petition be referred to the Consideration of the Committee of the whole House, to whom the Petition of Mother Gin is referred.

Mr. Provincial, according to Order, presented to the House, a Bill to subvert the ancient Constitution and Liberties of the City of London; and the same was received and read a first Time, and ordered to be read a second Time.

A Petition of the Sacred College and Society of Jesus, on Behalf of themselves and other Followers of the Lamb, was presented to the House, and read, setting forth, That the Petitioners, as well by virtue of a Commission from Heaven, as by Letters Patents from their Illustrious Founder Ignatius Loyola, are intitled to make, and have accordingly made the whole Race of Mankind Hewers of Wood and Drawers of Water, and to take and enjoy, and have accordingly taken and enjoyed the Tenth of the Gentleman's Revenues, and the Farmer's Industry, without paying any valuable Consideration for the same: And therefore praying, that Leave may be given to bring in a Bill to enable the Society to erect a Court of Inquisition, independent of the Imperial Crown of these Realms, with Power to inflict Pains and Penalties, Difabilities and corporal Punishments, for the better Security of these Spiritual Emoluments.

ORDERED, That Leave be given to bring in a Bill according to the Prayer of the said Petition; and that Dr. Sacheverel and Father Peters do prepare and bring in the same.

ORDERED, That William Grumble, Esq; have Leave to go into the Country for three Months, for the Recovery of his Health.

ORDERED, That Mrs. Dorothy D'Anvers be appointed Manager of the Craftsman in his Room.

ORDERED, That John Trot, Esq; do minister unto her Necessities, from time to time, as Occasion shall require.

COMPLAINT being made to the House, of two seditious Libels, intituled, the Daily Gazetteer, the one of Saturday 15th May, written by one Francis Osborne, threatening to commit a Rape upon the Body of Dorothy D'Anvers, a Member of this House; and the other intituled the Daily Gazetteer, Monday 17th May, wrote by one Francis Walsingham, Esq; highly reflecting upon the natural Parts of the said Dorothy D'Anvers, in Violation of the Privilege of this House:

ORDERED, That the said Francis Osborne, and the said Francis Walsingham be, for their said Offences, taken into Custody of the Serjeant at Arms attending this House.

AND then the House adjourned till To-morrow Morning Ten of the Clock.

By virtue of an Order of the House, I do appoint Mr. Nathaniel Miff, and Mr. Richard Franklin to print these Votes, and that no other Person do pretend to print the same.

W. WHISTLE, Speaker.

L O N D O N.

Yesterday his Majesty went to the House of Peers, and after having sent for the House of Commons, and given the Royal Assent to several publick and private Bills, he made a most gracious Speech from the Throne, and then was pleased to put an End to the Session, by proroguing the Parliament to the 29th of next July.

Among the publick Bills which had the Royal Assent were,

That to prevent the Lifting his Majesty's Subjects as Soldiers, without his Majesty's License.

The Sinking Fund Bill.

That for naturalizing the Princess of Wales.

The Westminster Bridge Bill.

That relating to the Disposition of Lands.

The Stamp Duty Bill.

That for explaining the Bribery Act. And

That to prevent the unlawful Importation of Merchandizes.

His Majesty was pleased to conclude his most gracious Speech, by signifying his Intention of visiting his German Dominions, and leaving the Queen sole Regent during his Absence; adding, that as they had, on the like Occasion, experienced her just and prudent Administration, he made no doubt but they would render the Burden of this weighty Trust as easy to her as possible, by preserving the Peace and Tranquility of the Kingdom.

On Tuesday last died at Tottenham-high-croft, Mr. David Martin, an eminent Merchant, who hath left behind him the noble and truly valuable Character of a fair Trader, a kind Relation, a generous Friend, and an honest Man.

His Majesty's Ships the Burlington and Portsmouth are not to be launched at Deptford, where they have been lately re-built, till the Return of Sir Charles Wager from Holland.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Rev. David Gregory, Regius Professor of Modern History in the University of Oxford, to the vacant Canonry of Christ Church in that University.

Last Monday Mynheer Coniltz, Equerry to his Majesty, as Elector of Hanover, set out for that Place, in order to place the Re-lays of Horses, and to give other necessary Orders for his Majesty's Journey.

Last Wednesday Mr. Attorney and Mr. Solicitor General received his Majesty's Commands to prepare an Instrument to pass the Great Seal of Great Britain, for constituting her Majesty sole Guardian and Lieutenant within these Realms, during his Majesty's Absence at Hanover.

His Excellency Baron Hartoffe, Secretary at War, and Privy Counsellor for Hanover, will attend his Majesty to that Electorate.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Horatio Walpole, Esq; his Majesty's Ambassador to the States General, Cofferer of his Majesty's Household, and Member of Parliament for Yarmouth, to be one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State in the room of the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, who has Resign'd. And,

We hear that his Lordship is to have the Command of a Regiment of Horse.

This Day at Noon will be held a General Council at St. James's, when the Right Honourable the Earl of Cholmondely will be sworn one of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

Last Tuesday his Majesty's Plate of 100 Guineas at Winchester, was won by a Horse belonging to his Grace the Duke of Bolton.

Yesterday Mr. Thomas Saunders kissed his Majesty's Hand for a Lieutenantancy in the Regiment of Foot commanded by General Fielding.

We hear that their Excellencies Count Kinski, the Imperial Ambassador, Count Montijo, his Catholick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary, M. Chavigni, the French Ambassador, and the Chevalier d'Offorio, Envoy from the King of Sardinia, will attend his Majesty at Hanover.

On Wednesday last the celebrated Dr. Taylor was appointed Occulist to his Majesty.

Yesterday Bank Stock was 148 3-4ths. India 177. South Sea 99. Old Annuity 112 to 1-8th. New ditto, 111 3-4ths. Three per Cent. 105 7-8ths. Emperor's Loan 117 1-4th. Royal Assurance 109. The Secret Instructions of the Jesuits. In Latin and English

Àu défaut de la Force, il faut employer la Ruse, Motto to LAYEN'S Scheme.

Advertisement concerning this Book.

This Masterpiece of religious Policy was published, many Years since, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Book-seller at Amsterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jesuits, being informed that he had purchased this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then sent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amsterdam, hearing it said, soon after, to a Catholick Book-seller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jesuits, replied, that it was only The Rules of the Society, he should not be under any Concern; but desired he would inform himself what it was. Being told by the Book-seller, that it was The Secret Instructions of the Society, the good Father, shrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, said, that he saw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more advisable to purchase the whole Edition, which they soon after did, some few Copies excepted; from one of these it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there said to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.

X. A REPORT from the COMMITTEE appointed to

The most Fam'd and long Experienced Chymical Drop

For ASTHMA's and CONSUMPTIONS,

That have been Sold so many Years, and with such uncommon Success and Benefit to the Publick, by Mr. Parry, and his Predecessors, in Boar's-Head-Court, Fleet-street; but, since Mr. Parry's Decease, are now sold only by Mr. Read for 3s. 6d. a Vial, at his House in White-Fryars. N. B. You turn in just by the Sea Tavern in Fleet-street, and it's the great Corner House in White-Fryars; JAMES READ, in great Letters, is wrote over the Door.

*They are a most Incomparable and never-failing Medicine for the immediate Relief and perfect Cure of the most confirmed ASTHMA of the longest standing:
And all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, even rubes for advanced, as not to be cured by any other Medicines in the World.*

FOR their Virtues vastly exceed any Thing that ever was published, or even known in the whole World, in the Cure of the worst Asthma's and Consump-tions of all Sorts, Coughs, Colds, Catarrhs, &c.

They instantly relieve the Patient in the most suffocating Fit of an Asthma, and make a perfect Cure in a very short Time; for they gently open the Breast, and immediately give Liberty of Breathing, without danger of taking Cold; they admirably allay the Tickling, which provokes frequent Coughing, and take off the uneasy Sensation of acrimonious Hæ-mours, cleanse the small Glands, relax the Fibres, and thereby enlarge the Capacities of the Vessels; thus they regularly and quickly Cure the most obstinate Asthma of the longest standing.

They speedily and to Admiration cure all Sorts of Consump-tions, Ulcers of the Lungs, &c. removing all Obstructions of the Breast, and Lungs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Soreness, Shortness of Breath, and all the usual Symptoms which attend the Beginnings of a Consumption; and, if taken in time, will infallibly prevent one when seized. They are also exceeding nutritive and strengthening to Persons of weakly Constitution, and have no other sensible Operation than as mentioned above.

And by Parity of Reasoning this most excellent Medicine is (and well known to be) the most sovereign Remedy in the World for those troublesome spending Coughs, which many are severely troubled with Night and Morning; also for the Chin-cough, and Hooping-Cough in Children, having cured Thousands; and are so pleasant, and so few Drops to a Dose, that Children take them with Pleasure, and without any Confinement.

In short, these unparallel'd Chymical Drops are the most infallible Remedy that ever was known (therefore they deserve the faint Efforts of any Counterfeiters or Imitators) for the Ailments above-mentioned, and allowed to be so by the most Judicious amongst the Learned in Physick; and confirmed by the largest Experience in private Practice, are therefore made for Publick Common Good.
